Liver and Pancreas Institute for Quality

Mission

The mission of The George Washington University Hospital is to provide the highest quality healthcare, advanced technology and world class service to our patients in an academic medical center dedicated to education and research.

Vision

Together, we will pursue our passion for healing, discovering medical breakthroughs and improving lives. While developing tomorrow's leaders, we will earn our community's trust and recognition as the first choice for complex medical care.

Principles

We realize this vision through our commitment to the following principles:

- Service excellence
- Quality improvement
- Employee development
- Ethical and fair treatment
- Teamwork, compassion and innovation

Accreditation

The hospital is accredited by The Joint Commission and licensed by the District of Columbia Regulatory Affairs Department.

Introduction

With the opening of our new Liver and Pancreas Institute for Quality we offer surgical approaches and advanced treatments for your patients with Pancreas, liver, bile duct, duodenum and gallbladder diseases.

The LPIQ surgical team has a combined experience of more than 40 years in the field of Pancreas and Liver surgery and treatments.

Meet the Executive Director

Lynt Johnson, MD, Executive Director, LPIQ and Professor of Surgery

Dr. Lynt Johnson is the former Chairman of the Department of Surgery at Georgetown University Hospital. He has published over 130 scientific articles in the field of liver and pancreas cancer and transplant surgery and is nationally recognized as an expert in hepatobiliary/pancreas surgery with special interests in advanced cancer surgery and minimally invasive techniques.

About the Liver and Pancreas Institute for Quality

GW Hospital is an academic hospital dedicated to the use of advanced and innovative techniques for treating patients with even the most complex diseases.

Treatments and Services

With these complicated diseases, experience matters to patient outcomes. Dr. Johnson has 30+ years of surgical experience, exceeding over 1,000 combined pancreas resections and 700 liver resections. The institute offers nationally superior outcomes in a specialized environment.

Our team uses many advanced techniques for treating the most complex conditions, including:

- Innovative and complex surgery for pancreas cancer (Whipple)
- Minimally invasive pancreas resection/whipple for benign and malignant conditions
- Minimally invasive liver resection for benign and malignant conditions
- Combined pancreas resection with vascular reconstruction
- Interventional ablation techniques
- Targeted precision drug therapies
- Advanced stereotactic body radiation treatment
- Multidisciplinary oncologic pre-treatment planning and clinical trials
- Advanced nurse practitioners and program manager for personalized care
- Specialized perioperative care
- Pancreatic cancer genetic testing in high-risk individuals (Ruth Paul Cancer Genetics and Prevention Service)
- Primary and second opinion for advanced pancreatic cancer
